DRAGGERS LANDED HEAVY RECEIPTS

SCH. JOSEPHINE AND MARY
BROUGHT IN 15,000 POUNDS
THIS MORNING.

Local flounder draggers, what few of them arrived this forenoon, brought a good supply of mixed fish to a dry market. Sch. Josephine and Mary landed her largest fare of the season at the Producers' Fish Company, weighing out around 15,000 pounds. The off-shore dragger, Ruth Lucille, came down from Boston yesterday afternoon with 31,000 pounds of fish for the General Seafoods corporation to fillet. Gill net receipts were poor yesterday, the boats as a rule having small hauls.

Broke Her Mainmast.

Boat Lincoln, one of the local flounder draggers, came down from Boston yesterday afternoon to have a new mainmast stepped. While hauling her drag on her last trip, a heavy rock caught in the trawl, and in hoisting the bag to deck, the weight of the boulder was so great that it snapped off the mainmast at the top.

PLENTY OF FISH OVER HOLIDAY

DRAGGERS AND SHORE BOATS
BROUGHT FARES AS HIGH AS 75,000 POUNDS.

After a quiet spot in the local market draggers and trawlers found good fishing over the holiday, the fleet landing fares which ran from a few hundred pounds up to 75,000 pounds. The off-shore dragger Beauty St. Joseph arrived from the fishing grounds yesterday morning with 75,000 pounds of haddock for the General Seafoods Corporation and reported that all of the fleet had made good hauls the past few days. Some of the local shore draggers ran fares as high as 15,000 pounds, also reporting an abundance of haddock and flat fish. Gill netters, however, were less fortunate, for some of them did not get enough fish to report, and a few of the boats failed to set their nets back.
